Tintin Curriculum provided framework to plan community action projects

Applying the Tintin curriculum

- Investigate theme/topic
 - Find a source for interview
 - News report
 - Community action
- No formal assessment of tasks
 - Stimulate critical thinking
 - Focus on collaboration
 - Identify meaningful action

LESS IS MORE

Challenges and opportunities

- Time
- Mixed abilities and backgrounds
 - age
 - language
 - culture
- Meaningful connections
 - subject related
 - cross/extra curricular

The Tintin curriculum can be adapted to suit each school, individual and context

Planning projects

"I WAS NERVOUS ABOUT INTERVIEWING PEOPLE BUT THIS WAS THE BEST PART "

"I REALLY LIKE WHEN WE LEARNED WHAT WAS FAKE OR REAL NEWS."

Student projects

World Clean Up Day

No Cleaner Day

Count with a tally in the PDF file. How many instances of each type of trash you find? You'll see check in line on the floor, all classrooms & shared spaces.
Make your comments and recommendations based on where you find the most trash & the types you find.
